

Beaded Treasures

Velvet Pansy Pin WS294

Teacher: Arlene Baker. (All Levels) With Arlene's expert guidance, learn how to use antique flower making tools to shape luxurious silk and rayon velvet pansy petals and leaves. The authentic-looking flower center is made with wired chenille and Flower Soft and the pansy's realistic face is drawn with a marking pen, then colored with alcohol inks. Finish your beautiful pin with flocked leaf stems and the pansy stem wrapped with a vintage-style tubular cloth covering.

1 Session $75.00 Sun, Apr 29 (10:00-4:30)

French Beaded Butterfly WS201

Teacher: Arlene Baker. (All Levels) Arlene, well known for her fine French wire ribbon work and vintage bead reproductions, is excited to teach and pass on her special techniques to make this elegant pin using basic French beaded-wire techniques and sparkling seed beads.

1 Session $72.00 Sat, Jun 16 (10:00-4:30)

"Old Glory" Bracelet WS292

Teacher: Sheilah Cleary. (Level 2) Just right for the Fourth of July or year-round, Sheilah's super quick bright red, white and blue patterned bracelet is as eye-catching as a sky full of fireworks, and just the "bling" to wear during our nation's birthday.

1 Session $62.00, plus $24.00 kit fee
Sun, May 20 (10:00-4:00)

Cleopatra's Asp Bracelet WS291

Teacher: Sheilah Cleary. (All Levels) Learn the stitch that creates this slinky reptilian look and how to graduate it down and up, adding the end caps and wrapping the clasp loops. Choose any focal bead or metal tube component to add drama to this eye-catching bracelet.

1 Session $52.00, plus $36.00 kit fee
Sat, Jun 9 (10:00-3:00)

Bronze Clay Magical Fairy Tower Necklace WS293

Teacher: Kathy Davis. (All Levels) Kathy will lead you through the step-by-step process to make your very own Magical Fairy tower out of bronze clay. There will be several options for personalizing your tower in the second class, including finishing the tower with stones and charms to make your piece extra personal!

2 Sessions $45.00, plus $30.00 kit fee
Sat, May 5 (9:30-12:30), May 12 (10:00-11:00)

Jewelry Workshop WS097

Teacher: Mary Nesfield. (All Levels) Join Mary as she teaches several jewelry techniques: basic wire wrapping, free-form wire weaving, scalemaille, Viking knit, and Byzantine chainmaille.

1 Session $62.00
Sun, Apr 22 OR Sat, Jun 30 (10:00-3:30)

Metalsmithing Workshop WS206

Teacher: Mary Nesfield. (All Levels) Metalsmithing opens up a whole new world of possibilities in jewelry making. Basic techniques will be taught as you learn to use a jeweler's saw to create a turtle-setting pendant, gold leaf copper bracelet or earrings.

1 Session $62.00, plus kit fee
Sun, May 27 (10:00-3:30)

Alcohol Ink Jewelry WS253

Teacher: Danna Phalen. (All Levels) Explore the vibrant and unpredictable nature of alcohol inks while making glass cabochon earrings and pendants with a round bezel. Techniques include dripping, pouring and moving inks with a brush. Students will be provided with enough materials to create five one-of-a-kind pieces of jewelry.

1 Session $65.00, includes all supplies Sat, May 5 (1:30-4:30)

Ethnic Eclectic Tassel WS295

Teacher: Robin Dudley-Howes. (All Levels) Join Robin as she teaches her luscious tassel full of layers and texture. You will explore basic tassel construction along with various techniques such as basket weaving, bead wrapping, pom-poms, beaded tube dangles, knotting and fiber wrapping in this process-oriented class. Robin's goal is to teach at least one piece of each part of the tassel, enabling you to put it all together on your own if you can't finish your tassel in class.

1 Session $88.00, plus $85.00 optional kit fee
Sun, Jun 10 (9:30-4:30)
