DID YOU KNOW???

That the living God is triune — the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit and if you are lacking in one, you are lacking in all?

That the sole purpose for God sending His Son to earth is for Jesus to take us back to our Father? Without reconciliation with God the Father we are lost (unwhole).

That God made it impossible for anything in the world to satisfy so we would eventually seek Him?

That we are born cut off from our source of life — born in hell (the grave), and are spiritually dead until we are reconciled with our Father?

That meeting Jesus as savior is but the door, not the conclusion of eternal life?

That when Jesus said, “Follow me”, He meant just that — that it is a journey we must take if we are to fulfill our destiny for which we were born?

That all families are dysfunctional? That the same blood that coursed through Cain which made him kill his brother is coursing through our veins?

That our spiritual blood must be shed and replaced by the blood of Christ before we are free of guilt and sin?

That we must suffer to the shedding of our blood? There is fellowship in suffering and understanding.

That God would pity us if we were not so busy pitying ourselves? Self-pity and pride and jealousy are three killers bigger than cancer.

That the first thing Jesus told His disciples when instructing them on how to get free was to leave all family ties?

That you can do many wonderful things in His name and still not be “saved”?

That the end of the world, the second coming of Christ and the end of the age are all the same and are taking place right now?

That unless your reasoning power, your reason for doing anything, is changed into God’s reasoning power, you are yet a sinner??

That you are born a sinner and cannot know God unless you are completely transformed — as completely as a worm is transformed into a butterfly?

That Jesus, the Christ, is the only one who can be a propitiation for your sin? Not Buddha, not Mohammed, not by being good?

That America is so lost, so deceived, so perverted, so disgusting, that unless we have a happening worse than the towers, (which seemed to stir a few and then we all yawned and went back to sleep) we are a nation headed for destruction?

That the same judicial system that freed O.J.; that made a law prohibiting quilting after dark in Franklin, Kentucky; that made a law which prohibits one from leaving the house if ugly in San Francisco; is the same mentality that has thought up all the binding codes that oppress businesses, causes brother to snitch against brother, and has robbed us of our ability to think — has forced us to lie, manipulate and connive to appease an insane system?

That our so called pastors and shepherds are blind leaders leading blind people, and it is up to us to desire our freedom enough to seek first the Kingdom of God on our own, and stop looking to blind leaders?

That the number of people willing to pay the price for our freedom is indeed small?

That we have a government over us that reflects the hearts of our nation?

That — and I hate to say this — most people who read this are so sound asleep, they just do not “give a damn”? Or they will justify their sin by thinking I am some weirdo. God sees our evil deeds. He sees our thoughts. He sees our motives. All is bare before Him and I’m afraid we are only fooling ourselves if we continue on as usual with the attitude, “Let us eat, and drink and be happy for tomorrow we will die anyway.”

That I love you all dearly, but most of all God loves you and He chastises those He loves. Though the road seem long and sometimes hopeless, He has not forgotten you or America. He sees our situation — feels our bewilderment, our pain. Let us all bear our suffering with that same perseverance our forefathers had as they left a corrupt system and began a new life. Till we meet again let us pray for one another and pray we all get united not just in word but in Spirit.

April — June 2002 Letter

What is new at the store??

Well, lots. For starters we have an eternal fireplace in the entrance. This is a must to see. You will want one immediately. Our miracle working men will make one to your liking with the snap of the finger. These fireplaces are electric. The flame is a miracle. It will heat or not heat according to your wishes. Come in and sit awhile, and munch on a freshly baked muffin and sip a cup of tea or coffee.

Because we are completely redecorating the store, I called it Gar Land because of the use of all the garlands. We looked up the word gar and it means to cause or do. Interesting, as I pray that is what Piecemakers is all about — united with the cause of all things, our gracious Father, and doing His will.

Also, we have a new pocket planner coming out for the year 2003. This will be number one on your shopping list as it is a beauty and practical.

Our tearooms are done in velvet tablecloths — quite elegant even though the velvet is washable. Every room is inviting and loaded with new exciting gifts. Everything to make your house a home.

Give yourself and us a treat and come visit us. Bring in this letter and get a free cup of coffee and a cookie.
