

July — September 1997 Word

“Upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” Matthew 16:18

We are in the greatest spiritual battle since the fall of Adam and Eve in the garden. Whether you will be among those who find their way out of the Christian world and into the kingdom of God depends upon your willingness to give up your life — your world.

Before I begin this lesson I want to prepare you. I am going to say things that will offend the Pharisee but will be food and life to the lovers of truth.

Jeremiah 23:16 says this truth for today. “Do not listen to the words of the prophets, evangelists or teachers or priests who speak to you. They make you worthless. They speak a vision of their own heart. Not from the mouth of the Lord. They keep the people worshipping gods of their own imagination.” Then He says he will send a violent whirlwind and it will fall violently on the heads of the leaders who have misled the people. Then he goes on to say that all the visions and dreams that are so filling the literature as food for God’s children is chaff which we all know has no food value. God is preparing a people who have come before Him (who is a consuming fire) and will go forth with fire in their mouths.

Now let us look at the lesson scripture. We have all heard this scripture and always see it as Christ the rock upon whom the church will be built. We know the charismatic move has failed miserably to do this. I will talk more about this later. I want to talk about the gates of hell and the implications of the rest of that scripture. The scripture implies that the church is living in hell or the grave. Meeting Christ does not carte blanche take you out of hell. He only awakens you to the fact that you are in hell. And then He leads the way out if you follow Him. Let me explain something to you. We are all born in hell — dead in the grave. We are all born into a dysfunctional family. We all have the devil as our spiritual father.

Now if you can digest that much, let me take you a little further. All the evangelists, teachers and prophets we have had thus far I thank God for. However they have not moved on when the glory cloud moved. They have lost their anointing. They have no food for the people for they have not been willing to lose their lives so as to come out of hell themselves, so they keep the people dead and bound. Can you see why God is angry with the so-called leaders who have not left the world themselves so are in fact no leaders at all? Their seed has become twice the children of hell. They run around the world coming before kings, queens, presidents, etc. They love the adulation and praises of men and not of God. Their lives are an example of those conformed to a sick society, not the example that Paul and the prophets set. If you are to be a leader in this current move you will not be a part of the big revivals going on. God did that in the sixties and seventies. Hello!!!! This is the nineties. Only the elect will not be deceived for they have an unction from the Holy One (1 John 2).

All leaders will be examples for the body of Christ to follow. Hear how the scriptures describe the examples for the people to follow. 1 Peter 2:21 — “For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps.” So we see suffering is a must. James 5:10 — “My brethren, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord as an example of suffering and patience.” 1 Timothy 4:10 — “For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those who believe.” Now for the coup de grâce. Philippians 3:17-19 — “Brethren, join in following my example, and note those who so walk, as you have us for a pattern. For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is destruction whose god is their ministry, and whose glory is in their shame — who set their mind on earthly things.”

Any so-called leader in the apostate church is not God's leader no matter how anointed he seems to be. For we are in the last hour my little children and many anti-christs or many anointings which look real are actually false anointings. What an hour in which to live for we see that the gates of hell with all its powerful leaders will not prevail against God's real body. Ask God to open your eyes to the real and the phony. Stand up for what is right. Keep your eye on Christ and hang onto all, even your own life, loosely. God bless all of you and may He come to you with healing in His wings.

Marie Kolasinski

July — September 1997 Letter

Hello dear friends,

John the apostle writes, “My little children; this is the last hour.” God's love toward us is not to frighten us (although a little fear of the Lord would be good for us), but to warn us, so that what is about to happen will not catch us unawares.

False anointings are here — the world is in collision with the birth of a new world — and people are fainting not knowing how to cope. My dear little children, Father is drawing us unto a new age called “The Kingdom of God”. Nothing of the old will make it into the next age.

We, the Piecemakers, are forerunners and a true witness of the resurrection and our Father abiding in the earth. We also are your hope that as you turn to God, He will turn to you and be with you and succor you in your time of trouble. The communion with our Father is bringing ever closer that community feeling — that feeling of arriving home after a long hard journey.

Our Craft Fair on July 4th is under the tent of our dear Father, blessing our vendors and all who graciously come and support both them and us.

*Lots of changes are happening at the store. Our classrooms have been moved to our building across the parking lot from the store. This has made room for a fun “Bearly Used” little store. Treats, bargains and treasures for all at a very low price. Open now with the Grand Opening on July 12.

August 15th is family fun evening with an old fashioned Ice Cream Social. Bring family and friends and make your dinner one of the a la modes, sundaes, milkshakes or root beer floats.*

The dollmakers are having their annual challenge once again. This is always a time when the world's greatest dollmakers meet and share dollmaking ideas and friendship.

Check the Calendar of Events for more get-togethers and fun events.

Please — one more big event. Our first debut of our version of The Big River musical will take place on September 27th. Make reservations early. This production will remind you of the traveling shows that used to go across country. Popcorn, hot dogs and a prize for guessing the closest to the number of beans in a jar will be available.

Thank you for this time of sharing. Wish I could meet all of you personally. I always remain respectfully yours, and pray God continue to be with us for better or worse; in good times and in bad times.

