Therefore by their fruits you will know them. Not everyone who says to me “Lord, Lord” shall enter the kingdom of heaven but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to me in that day “Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in your name, cast out demons in your name and done many wonders in your name?” And then I will declare to them “I never knew you, depart from me you doers of iniquity.” Therefore whoever hears these sayings and does them ... Matthew 7:20-26

What is the Holy Spirit saying to the church? He is saying this! All who were called and walked in the charismatic realm, casting out demons, healing the sick, teaching the word, prophesying — all in the name of Jesus Christ — are having to face the fact that iniquity is hiding in their hearts and God is removing the veil and disclosing all we are thinking and doing in secret. He is moving in on the motives and intents of our hearts. He is beginning to force us to know Him — that is to marry Him. We cannot rightfully call Him Lord and have control or ownership over any part of our life. Do you want to “see God in your flesh” instead of stuck, left with selfish flesh? Then you must relinquish your life and consummate your marriage to Him. You will notice that the scripture says that all the wonderful things done in the charismatic move have not been His will — but our own will doing things that brought glory and honor to self.

Only by having an intimate relationship with God can we bring forth the fruit He is looking for — that fruit that will feed a lost world. This fruit is like the leaves on a tree that are a healing for the nations.

The marriage to God is the cross — the place of exchanging one life for another. It is the place where a new creation is born; where a new family is formed.

Remember — our iniquities have separated us from God (Isaiah 59:2) — not from Jesus but from God.

Remember also — our tongue is a den of iniquity that only the cross can destroy (James 3). You can sweet talk all you want — put on a religious pious face, but unless you find your intimate place in God’s heart, all talk and actions stem from iniquity, i.e. wickedness or perversion, and the curse is in your tongue.

The den of iniquity is operating in all of us including our so called leaders who will not submit their lives to the cross and come into the kingdom. Therefore they are coming up with weird legalistic, binding doctrines making the people twice the children of hell. I pray God open the eyes of the blind who are submitting the keeping of their souls to ruthless leaders. Imagine the doctrine of making man the head of the woman instead of Christ. Any teaching that will make people think they can be fulfilled through another person’s life or authority rather than Christ is promoting the control of one person over another. This is exactly contrary to Christ’s teaching. I watched with delight as Katie Couric on the Good Morning America Show backed a Baptist minister into a corner as he tried to make woman subservient to man, which by the way is the curse (Genesis 3:16). She used the scripture “There is no male or female in Christ.” Of course these leaders are not “in Christ” so they are ignorant of the freedom of equality. If they want to live by the law they should poke their eyes out as Jesus said to do if you lust after a woman or man. I’m sure every man teaching this doctrine is guilty of this. People, wake up and come out from among these pastors and teachers who are filled with iniquity — wolves in gentle looking lamb’s clothing — they are full of deception. God is angry with the lot of them. Earthquakes, hurricanes, floods, etc., are nothing compared to the wrath of our Lord as He comes after His bride. Also remember that those leaders trying desperately to set the natural family in order are coming totally against Christ's teaching as He said He'd set at variance the members of the family, cutting off the ability to communicate with one another. He does this so we seek Him. He is forming a new family, born of God — sinless and free of the curse.

Now I've said all that to say this: There is a holy remnant who have found the narrow path. As they come forth as an example of God's new family, many also will be born of God. Once the path is found it can be shown to others. We are about to see the GREAT AND TERRIBLE day of the Lord in all its glory — freeing His people from the leaders and authorities who wield their power of control. So hang onto your hats dear friends, as the country we live in we call America falls, and we see the emergence of the real America, humble and full of grace.

July — September 1998 Letter

Dear Lord,

Why do You say You love me and treat me as You do?

Why do You say, "Draw nigh to Me," then kick me with Your shoe?

You came to me from nowhere, and won my fickle heart,

You knew I'd never leave You — from You I'd never part.

You came into my life and grew and grew and grew

Until my heart burst open — my will gave way to You.

With heavy hand You beat me — "What have I done so wrong"?

No forgiveness, no mercy, how long, how long, how long????

I came to You and opened wide my inner cry and pain.

With a sharp sword Your answer seems to say, "Come not again."

Why do You say You "love" me and treat me like You do?

And why do I cling to Someone Who rejects me through and through?

The days went on and on — then weeks and months and years,

And then He changed, or was it I? And He wiped away my tears.

Those days are past, my precious Lord, You knew me from the start,

Your loveliness and truthfulness and cleanliness of heart,

I clung to them 'cause deep inside I knew the day would come

When You would say "Come up hither — it's eternal life you've won."

YOURS ETERNALLY,

Marie Kolasinski
