The Judgments of God

Hebrews 9:22 — "And all things are by the law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission."

Hebrews 10:18 — "Now where remission of sin is, there is no more offering for sin."

Now if you will look to Mark 1:4 and Luke 3:3 and Luke 24:47, you will notice that John preached the baptism of repentance and not water. Then let us turn to Acts 2:38. "Then Peter said unto them, repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and then ye shall receive the Holy Ghost."

Now, I can hear the whispering already. I have received the Holy Ghost. Well, my dear lost sojourner, Jesus Himself had not received the Holy Ghost until He made His trek up Calvary's hill where He shed His blood. And the way He went, we all must go for our blood is guilty, it is vengeful, it is mean, it is corrupted.

Old Testament: Genesis 9:5 — "And surely your blood which is your lives will I require."

Exodus 12:13 — "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are and when I see the blood, I will pass over you and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of America. Could America be saved as God sees the blood shed here at Piecemakers as the door to a new age. Will we see Costa Mesa in a sense protect us from being destroyed so as to be their own salvation???

Then of course we have the coup de grace, John 6:53 — "Then Jesus said unto them, verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood ye have no life in you."

Well, Jesus was talking to people whom we consider alive. So let us see beyond the seeing of the eyes. The blood of Adam is dead. Until we receive the blood of Christ, we are considered dead.

Then Jesus goes in 6:54 to say, "Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me and I in him."

Now Jesus is talking to Jews who according to the law of the Old Testament would not eat the blood of any animal. All things had to be kosher and Jesus comes along and slices right across the grain of their stupid traditions actually born out of the laws of the Old Testament. Do you see now how we will be spared that as we have not made any holiday part of the keeping for our salvation?

Romans 5:9 — "We are justified by His blood and shall be saved from wrath by His blood." Oh, I thought I was justified with my reasoning, by doing what is right in my own eyes, by going to confession or going to church or eating a cracker and drinking wine.

1 Corinthians 15:50 — "Now I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God neither doth corruption inherit incorruption." Is it not interesting He likens our blood to the word corruption? Strong's definition for corruption is moral decay, perishable, and also eternal misery in hell.

Hebrews 12 warns us that we have taken our walk too lightly and we have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. So let all of us be sincere and not double minded and bravely make our trek up Calvary's hill.

Now as we come into the resurrection of the dead we will sing the song of Moses and also fulfill Revelation 19:2 — "For true and righteous are His judgments; for He hath judged the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication and hath avenged the blood of His servants at her hand."

As long as we have our old blood we are considered a fornicator, are corrupt and are sinning against the body. Without the body, we will never be whole or perfect as our Father is perfect.

With the shedding of our blood we will no more be a fornicator or in other words we will no more have fleshly relationships but will flow together as the new wine that comes out of the winepress up to the bridling of the tongue and we will overcome the pits of hell, our old life and all misery by the blood of the Lamb — by the word of our testimony and we will be willing to love not our life unto death by making our trek up Calvary's hill.
