

February 17, 2010

The Orange County Register
Letters to the Editor

Editor,

I would assume that the motive for the deputies' lawsuit is the fact that they will be without a job. Perhaps we can give the deputies a home behind bars to alleviate the problem. Let them throw their badges and power down the toilet and get a real job.

Marie Kolasinski

[This letter was written in response to the Register article concerning the lawsuit filed by Orange County deputies to attempt to stop the early release of a number of prisoners.]