Signs of the Times

“Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming and the end of the world???” (Matthew 24) Please note that the second coming of Christ and the end of the world is the same happening.

This is the question to be asked today for there is an unfolding of these prophetic words. Christ’s coming is not some sweet, wonderful happening. It is the end of all things as we know it.

The end of the world is the end of the church which has never been the real church in all its glory. The only time we really have seen the church is in the book of Acts where the believers were all of one accord. Always remember, the church is the body of Christ. A body has no pastors, no elders, no prophets or evangelists. It is a body with no respecter of persons, each one preferring one another before themselves. It is akin to our physical body, where if one hurts, we all hurt — each part doing the Father’s business.

After the light of the real church went out, (the church with the lives of the apostles as its foundation), the Catholic church, as an imposter, was born. The seed of the real church went into the ground and died and we are at a time when the imposter will be no more. I am not surprised at the severe judgment happening to the Catholic church. It is long overdue. Not one stone will be left unturned when God finishes with it. It is a filthy cemetery and not only should all the hooded hypocrites be freed, but also the people who tithe to this imposter.

By the way, all governments have usurped the governments of God and will be brought down.

As you probably know, the church is not a building; it is not even something to go to, nor is it two or three gathered together. It is, indeed, the body of Christ, born of new blood — a new creation. The word “church” comes from the Greek word “ekklesia” meaning the place where all action and motion begins. It is a living organism representing the living God on earth. This God is the Father of Jesus Christ and the Father of all who have suffered to the shedding of their old blood and inherited the blood of Christ.

Did you know that the Lutheran church is nothing more than a memorial (cemetery) to something that happened when a brave man dared to expose the Catholic church?? Did you know that the Methodist church is a memorial to the light that hit the people at the time of Wesley?? All the charismatic churches now are a memorial to the happenings in the sixties and seventies. Dead cemeteries, pastored by dead pastors — the blind, leading the blind.

Jesus reprimanded his disciples who were mostly fishermen. “Shame on you hypocrites. You know the signs set in the sky to tell you what kind of day you will have for fishing, but you are so spiritually dead you do not discern the sign of your visitation.”

Luke 19:42 — “If thou hadst known even thou, at least in this thy day the things that belong to thy peace, but now they are hid from thine eyes.” As I watched the Rather/Hussein interview this scripture came to mind. Rather just did not “get it”. The truth Hussein was saying was hid from his eyes. “For the days shall come upon thee, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.” This is a warning to our nation. Unless the spirit of God intervenes and tears down our arrogance and ignorance and pride, we shall have a little David slay the big bully Goliath called the United States of America.

As I watched the 9/11 visitation the above scripture came to mind. Did you know that the 16 acres those towers were built upon were taken from people through the “eminent domain”?? Our bully, greedy government taking in our own country what does not belong to them. Was this God’s judgment on a greedy city as the cries of those who lost their businesses were heard by God? Did you know that those buildings were like the Titanic — built so well even God could not destroy them? So man thought. This is the America of today — so strong even God cannot touch us.

We all know that God is a personal God and therefore this warning is personal (Notice the scripture says, “I will not leave one stone left unturned in thee”), and also a warning for our nation. Our inner man is built stone upon stone. The spirit of our nation is built stone upon stone. We will see not only our inner man being torn down to bring forth a new man but we will see the system of our country being torn down, or imploding, like the towers to bring forth the real America made up of real people who are one in thought and deed. The threat that Bush made to Hussein could come crashing down on our own heads — “I will make of Iraq a pre-industrial nation.”

Now these are the signs of the end of the world, i.e., the coming of the Lord, or the coming of a new age:

1. In Luke 12 Jesus says one of the signs is we judge not what is right. Did you ever see such a government of lying idiots running our nation and the people loving to believe a lie? Jesus said He would bring strong delusion so all would believe a lie and be condemned. A warning — liars and lovers of a lie will not enter the next age. We desperately need the spirit of truth to enter the hearts of the American people.
2. Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom. Is this not the Israel, Palestine saga?? — also, the U.S. rising up against (please spare me from listing the countries), threatening them to bow their knee to the good old U.S.A.
3. “And then many shall be offended and betray one another and hate one another.” (Matthew 24) Have you yet had this happen to you?? When it comes right down to the exposing of the real person, we will all be surprised to see who loves and serves God and who does not. Remember, Judas was one of the close disciples of Christ; Benedict Arnold was an officer honored and loved by Washington. Some who seem to be just a nobody will have that spirit of truth and will love the truth and love Piecemakers. Ah, the sweet fellowship of those walking in the light of the truth.

4. Expect our system to implode. Expect families to turn on one another as God separates the tares from the wheat. Expect those of like mind, like tribes, to migrate toward one another. Expect those who know the Lord to rejoice and do exploits and rise to the occasion when needed.

5. One more important sign I want you to take note of and then do not say you were not warned. False Christs are running rampant. When I hear, “Oh, the Spirit was so in our midst”, I want to plug my ears. The Spirit is not moving as it did in the early rain. If anyone is led to Christ at this time it is a false Christ. If anyone professes to be an apostle or teacher it is a false Christ. God Himself is moving in judgment forming a new man, a metamorphosis if you will.

Come out from among the unclean church so Christ can receive you. Leading someone to a false Christ is sealing the doom of the people, trapping them in an age that is passing away. God is helping those who confess their faults daily, emptying themselves daily by obediences, making crooked places straight, removing grave clothes off one another so as to be knit together in love. He is uniting His people to Himself and to one another in a way never done before. God is looking for a body in which to be its all and all and which bears fruit each month for the world to eat from.

Remember, my dear friends: Those who endure until the end of God’s dealings will be saved and others will follow.

God bless all of you. Fill your spiritual tanks with the oil of patience, wisdom and perseverance, for the day of the Lord is upon us.

April — June 2003 Letter

My dear fellow sojourners;

Now, my dear friends, let us give some serious thought to the condition of the world. Did you know that God loves the Iraqi people the same as He loves the American people? That if we bring harm to them perhaps we are touching the apple of God's eye? Did you know that He says, "He who is without sin should 'shoot the first missile'?" And also, "Do unto others as you would want them to do unto you?"

Our own atrocities with the black race, the Indians, the immigrants, are not too far removed from the Iraqi atrocities. Our civil war with brother pitted against brother was no different than the Kurds and Serbs. Thank God nobody interfered with our civil ethnic cleansing war. I wonder if Lincoln looked like a Saddam to the outsider. We evidently haven't learned from the Vietnamese war or the "no win" of any war.

Our government's evil against the citizens of our country is not too far removed from the evil lurking in the heart of Saddam. The difference — we do all under the guise of a nice, civil, humble Christian nation.

By the way: Only God can remove evil. It is a spiritual force lurking in the hearts of the human race and in the power of the air. Our prayer should be, "Dear God, deliver us from evil."

In the Rather/Hussein interview, Hussein repeatedly said he was putting his trust in God. Just what if God hears his prayers and we end up with another David and Goliath fiasco?

Another "what if" — what if God is getting the world's attention and the fire of God falls on both Saddam and Bush, causing the fire of repentance to flood the earth? God promised he would destroy the world with fire. This would be an answer to God's prayer. Or just what if our sweet democratic, Christian government would get everyone to disarm, including the citizens of America, and we would end up being the big, bully, antichrist? With America's thinking the way it is, I would not put my money on our settling for peace as we are, on the whole, a bunch of whoremongers. Sorry to say that we, the professing Christian nation, are ending this age not as the gentle savior but the biggest whoremonger since the beginning of time.

I pray this message broaden your heart and your thinking so as to include the feelings of the people around the world, not just "me and mine". For "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son..."

God have mercy on us all.

Marie
