

Christ, The Rock

The verse that precedes the one I will write about is this — "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize???? So run that ye may obtain."

Wow! Did you know that you are indeed running a race? Do you know where you are going? Do you know what the goal is? Are you purposing to win this race? Good questions and please for the love of Christ do not answer with a "daaaa"!

Now for the scripture: 1 Corinthians 10:1 — Moreover, brethren, I would not have you ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through and sea and were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea. And did all eat of the same spiritual meat and all did drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual rock that followed them and that rock was Christ.

The church in the wilderness from its inception in the first century until now has been fed by the Rock. Many revivals happened, many knew Christ as their Savior as the Holy Spirit overshadowed them. The culmination of the wilderness days, the millennium called the church age began in the sixties. If you have a chance get the "Summer of Love" and witness the outpouring of the Spirit that drew all who were awakened under the same roof as they all drank of the same Spirit and then witness the wipe-out as they all sat down to play and all died of drugs, sexual disease and the rest died because of religion — all that is except a remnant. That remnant makes up a body which is known as the Rock. And upon this rock, Christ will build his church, the foundation for the new millennium we are entering.

Peter was the one whom God ordained to be one of the founding fathers of the age now coming to a close. For as he recognized Christ as the Son of God as given to Him by the Father, so will all who recognize the Christ, not because someone else tells them, but as the Father who is in Heaven reveals it, these will become the rock. Or the foundation of the New Age being born.

So, I'm reading 1 Corinthians 10 and I'm thinking, "Wow, God is surely a God of faith, for He is telling this ignorant nation not to be ignorant.

Now after reading the latest issue of Time magazine inferring we are in good hands as Schwartznegger and Bloomfield will save the world when the fact is the world is following leaders with the mentality of these two super heroes right into the pits of hell I see a nation whom was called by God fulfilling this scripture. And "They all sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play and were overthrown in one day." He is warning America that some who committed the evil we are committing were destroyed by serpents, some were overthrown and some fell.

That "Do not be ignorant brethren" is a warning. We either wake up and humble ourselves or we will be destroyed by serpents. And that type of destruction is of the worst kind. Are you tormented in your mind??? Are you so miserable, only by doping yourself do you get some semblance of peace. Well, the antidote to this is to humble yourself, turn from your wicked ways, seek first the Kingdom of God, and He will not only heal you but He will also take care of our earth we are destroying.

God is beautifully describing His move to end this millennium. In the sixties we were all baptized into Christ's death and were under the cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. It led and guided us until we became that rock on which He can build the church of the new age we are entering. Then He goes on to say that we all drank the same spiritual drink and all ate the same spiritual food.

Then He goes on to say some pretty scary things. But with many of them God was not pleased for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

I started the race when the Holy Spirit was hovering over the waters of the deep. And we were all under one roof until the enemy came through the Catholic Charismatic move and brought division and separated the real from the phony. I saw those without a vision or the wrong vision perish and settle for a ministry rather than the Rock. Some went back to their vomit and resumed life as usual persecuting the real seed. Thousands started the race, but only a remnant finished and upon those who finished He will build His church and the gates of hell will not prevail against them. And to the rest who settled for playing church, playing religious phonies, your house is built on sand and the wind and rain will surely come and destroy it and you with it for the waters of Noah are rising and you will either fall on the Rock or the Rock will fall on you.

The words of this song are ringing through the eternals, "Upon this Rock I now do stand, all else is built on sinking sand." And now may I ask you. Upon what have you built your house >>>> a religion, a church, a job security, a ministry, or have you built your house on the Rock???? Will your house stand when we are confronted with the next big wave from our almighty God????
