

Nobody In the World Can Know God

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God for they are foolishness to him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Corinthians 2:14

God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by whom the world is crucified unto me and I unto the world. Galatians 6:14

The world was made by Him and the world knew Him not. John 1:10

They are of the world, therefore they speak of the world. 1 John 4:4

Anyone born of God overcometh the world. 1 John 4:5

If any man love the world, the love of God is not in him. 1 John 4

I write these scriptures to awaken you to the fact that God is not of the world; contrary to the old saying, “Oh, God is everywhere.” When the Spirit started moving in the sixties, Calvary Chapel was the place where the Spirit was moving. It was as if a pebble was dropped into the sea of humanity and it reverberated throughout the world.

Now if a census were taken asking the adults of the world if God was with them, the answer would be, “Why of course, isn’t He with everybody?”

Do you know that man as he is born can never know God??? That he can receive the Holy Spirit which will bear witness of His Son? Now the Holy Spirit will lead and guide the recipient into all truth if the recipient is a willing vessel. The path the Holy Spirit takes one on is the path up the mountain to Calvary to ones death and then with the blood of His Son one can meet God.

Now, every country is in a sense created by the god who rules over it; the god who works through the citizens who create the country, its laws, its economy, its social structure. America was started by the true God, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob — the God who created you and me and heaven and earth. Our forefathers had a vision of a new land. That vision was given them by God. It is the same vision He gives to anyone who will be willing to forsake all to get to know Him — to seek first the kingdom of heaven.

People come to this country because of the God who created them, not because of the false god they worship. After they are here they bring their religion, their dead god who created their country and want to have equal say in our courts, our schools — all our public places. How dare we have the Ten Commandments in our court system? How dare we quote the Bible in our schools??

My remedy for the people who are demanding “freedom of religion” — go back to the country created by the phony god you worship and let us keep our allegiance to the God who founded our country. It is this God who draws the people to this great nation. For everyone has buried deep within him the longing for the true God who is the Father of Jesus Christ and all who will follow the Holy Spirit up that awesome mountain, through Calvary into the bosom and comfort of this most awesome Creator, God Himself, thus becoming His son.

So God is not everywhere as you suppose. He is hidden in a high and holy place and only those who seek first His kingdom will get to know and love this wonderful Father, our Comforter, our rest.
