

EVIL DAY

That He may deliver us from this present evil age.

What is the Spirit saying to the church??? Let me tell you what He is not saying to the so called “church”. He is not saying, “Come to Jesus and get saved.” He is not saying, “Go to church and be good and you will go to heaven.” He is not saying, “Jesus died for your sins.” I could go on and on with all the B. S. gospels being spread like manure across the world all in the name of Christianity...

He is saying, “Get the hell out of this present evil age.” And then all of His little babies cried. “And how do we get out of this evil they are to me?” And I would just have to answer the truth. You are your own evil. We are all caught doing evil continuously, even those who have a sweet religious mask on their pious little faces. For we are living in our evil day and calamity has come upon us. The only way out of our situation is to die out to our self and leave it behind like an old worn out filthy wineskin — jump on the Jesus train and get the hell out of Dodge before the devil knows you know who he is.

Jesus was a brave man. He was standing before the Costa Mesa police and the district attorneys and the judge and the whole kit and kaboodle justice system and He is witnessing just one more being sentenced to Orange County Jail for some way of living that did not fit into the Aryan race they are trying to bring about. And He said a pretty heavy thing I would have like to say but I lack the balls and the system is so much more corrupt today, Judge McCearson would have had me in contempt of court before I got the first sentence out of my “excuse me for trying my freedom of speech” mouth. He said these words and then tried to hide. I wear camouflage clothes and try to hide but the light I carry in my belly cannot be hid or put under a bushel.

He said, and I quote from the scripture which I would just suppose the Christian judge, jury and all red blooded Americans assume is the “Word of God”.

Mark 7:15 — There is nothing from without a man that entering into him can defile him, but the things which come out of him, those are that which defile the man.

Wow, and I just saw a man get arrested and sentenced for life for drunken driving, and another for taking drugs.

Wait, I am not finished:

Mark 7:21 — For from within, out of the heart of man proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness — all evil things come from within and defile the man.

So you see, my dear sojourner the most guilty ones in the court room were the judge, the brow beaten jury, the district attorneys, the lawyers, for not one of them had come out of their own evil age.

Now do you see why God loves the sweetsie babies in the prisons who have repented from their evil ways and have their conscience sprinkled by the blood of Christ and are already living in heaven while the deputies and Carona and the devil and his angels are barring the doors and beating them and mocking and spitting on them???

“What you have done to the least of My brethren you have done unto Me.”

God have mercy on us all as we enter into His coming. It is too late to get saved. We all are appearing before His judgment seat. I would suggest anyone reading this, for your good, hit the deck, make things as right as possible for there will not be one stone left unturned in your life as He enters your temple to live and abide forever with those who make room in their inn. And farewell for the rest for they will be destroyed. His uncontaminated love to all of you.
