

The Decade of Miracles Has Begun

Let us all have faith for the unseen and impossible to happen. I have faith that all prison doors will open and we all become the intent and purpose of God's heart. Instead of animals living the "eye for an eye" life, we will do unto others as we want done unto us.

I have faith that we will get to the place where if we hurt another it will come back on us or perhaps even come back on the whole community. If we say a word that is not constructive and life to the listener, we will get so convicted we will never prattle again.

The Holy Spirit is a judge. It makes convicts out of us by convicting us of our wrong. We do not need the law if the Holy Spirit is in our midst. The Holy Spirit is a measuring rod. We will no longer measure our lives by one another but by the Holy Spirit who leads and guides us into all truth.

Considering that the love of money is the root of all evil, why would we work to get money? Our love should be in the work that God has called us to do. Doing our job is pay enough when we work for work's sake and not for any wage, whether it be pride, competition or money. We cannot separate

God's will from God's work and His will, will be done in the earth as it is in heaven, and all who are not willing to give up his — his reasoning and motives of the heart — for the will of God, should perhaps go to the ovens as the Jews did in the forties.

Paul the apostle said this: "If you do not work, you do not eat." And rather than have one starve, it would be more efficient to do away with the hemorrhoid.

We are called to be unified with one God, one body, one mind, one heart, a living representation of God living in the earth.

Numbers 14:21 — But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord.

Psalms 104:31 — The glory of the Lord shall endure forever; the Lord shall rejoice in his works.

Proverbs 3:35 — The wise shall inherit glory but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

Isaiah 40:5 — And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.
