

"For as You Have Done..."

Woe unto those who are responsible for our prison system of today. For as you have done to those in prison so it shall be done unto you.

What I am about to write is an edict that has gone before the living God to bring judgment on every judge, lawyer, members of the juries that have made for a prison system that is worse than the prison camps of Hitler's day, that have used the taxpayers' money to support criminal acts perpetrated by judges, juries, deputies, wardens — the whole injustice system of America — putting in prison persons who have done no more evil than the murdering judges, lawyers, deputies, wardens and all responsible for caging God's children and treating them worse than any animal. And as the Bible says, getting pleasure and taking pride out of doing acts as evil as murder and calling it justice.

Romans 1:28 — "Because we have not retained God in our conscience, God has given us over to a reprobate mind, being filled with unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness, full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers, backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding or any such thing — they which commit such things are worthy of death." They judge and yet do the same thing.

Does that not describe the mind of every human being on the face of the earth???? He does not say, He gave this mind to those in prison. He gave all of us poor wretched humans over to a reprobate mind.

Romans 2:1, 3, 6 — Therefore YOU ARE inexcusable, O man, whosoever YOU ARE that judges and does the same things. And then think this, oh man that judges them which do such things, and does the same — that YOU shall escape the judgment of God? God will render to every man according to his deeds."

Now you will notice that envying and murder go hand in hand. So that puts all of us in the same category. Now, tell me. Seeing as how envy and murder and pride all go hand in hand and are attributes of what is known as a criminal, why are there some who envy in prison for life and the rest of us envy here on the outside of the prison walls as if we are not guilty of the same crime that has put some in prison???

Now, I am warning America as a nation and those in particular who deem it right to enslave God's people behind bars when the fact is, the hearts of all men are filled to running over with wickedness beyond our comprehension. The cruelty of man is like a monster out of hell. However it is child's play compared to the judgments of the living God. He will get inside of you and drive you insane as you try to hide from that from which there is no escape.

So if I were all of you who think you are doing the world a service by putting in prison those who are doing no worse than you are doing, I would first of all repent and then open wide the prison doors, open your house and take care of the ones whom you have maligned by taking their humanity and nurse them back to health and then make sure you give them back some of the money you were paid for incarcerating them.

Time has run out, God has left His holy habitation and is about to bring severe judgment on all who do evil, calling it good.

But glory, honor and peace to all who worketh with tender loving mercy and malice toward none.
