

America's Chastisement

God has not forgotten America; for He chastises those He loves. While America burns, our leaders are so busy trying to find a scapegoat to blame for the terrible judgement meted out by God to our country that they are unaware that they are causing the whole system to go bankrupt.

Thinking they can solve our problem with man's methods they are blind leaders leading blind people. More laws, they say. More "security", they say. All the while adding fuel to the problem rather than beseeching our nation to humble our hearts before a "pissed off" Father.

God can always outsmart the wisest of men. For He says, "The foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men." It is also written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent." God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise. And God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. And the base things of the world, the things despised hath God chosen.

So perhaps God has chosen some gutsy people whom America despises to bring us to our knees.

The birthing of a righteous nation has begun. America as we know it is history. However, God always finishes that which He begins. So, out of much suffering and anguish a new humble America will emerge, the fruit of the seed planted by some gutsy, brave forefathers of ours. Let us all stop flexing our muscles, acknowledge the mighty hand of God and bow our stiff neck lest He dole out more severe judgment.

God bless the new (yet unborn) America.
