

Who Has Seen The Wind?

Who has seen the wind ? Neither you nor I.
But when the nations tumble the wind is Passing by.

The breath of God is mighty like a rushing
Gusty wind
The same breath that gives us life can
Bring it to an end.

Ya, ya, who has seen the wind?
Neither you nor I
But when our pride does tumble
The wind is passing by.

Did I not tell you I would come
And breath upon you one by one?
With wars, disruptions no tomorrow
No families, cities, nations — sorrows?
The end of all that we once knew
His breath makes all the old anew.

Ya, who has seen the wind? Neither you nor I.
What the eye cannot see, nor heard by ear
Can take from us all that we hold dear
And replace it with the life above
Tender mercy and God's love.

So I care not if the wind I see
I'm grateful for His work in me
My eyes once blind are opened wide
No shadows left for me to hide.

So I have seen the wind
It did not pass me by
But breathed into my soul
Brought down my walls of pride.
