November 12, 2007

My dear e-mail friends,

This is more than just an ordinary e-mail. It is a two-edged sword, one calling for help, the other a last minute wake up call.

I will use the scriptures for the basis of my message. If the Bible interpreted by the Holy Spirit is not the basis for any message, our foundation is wrong.

1 Corinthians 15:51 — “Behold, I show you a mystery, we shall all not sleep, but we will all be changed.” Now we are living in what is called the fullness of time when all which was a mystery is now being revealed through much pain, suffering and change. Getting our eyes open from a long deceptive sleep is indeed painful. Reality is a painful thing to come by as we have to look at things as they really are. The games we play, the pretending, the phony religion, our knowledge which will vanish away, all in a pretense world. The world is changing and we are compelled to change with it. The night season where we could do things in secret and get away with it is all giving way to the day. “Who we were, ain’t what we are.” Or something like that.

Saying all of that, I will go to the next part of why I am compelled to write this e-mail.

Everything happening is in preparation for the coming of the Lord. Did I hear some smart ass saying, “Oh, I’ve heard that forever.” Well my dear, you have heard it from some preacher who hadn’t gone there himself. How many know there is a difference between a shepherd and a dictator? Or a boss or a preacher???? One tells you to go first and check the waters to see if the crocodiles get you and the other goes before you and the sheep follow.

Now, seeing that all is happening for the preparation for the coming of the “great and terrible day of the Lord” — do I agree with what Bush is doing to the Iraqi people? No, not any more than I would have agreed to the rough treatment the Egyptians gave the Israelites before their great and terrible day of the Lord. Israel got prepared by all comfort being taken and then Egypt was destroyed.

Do I agree with the treatment of the prisoners locked up behind walls and iron gates for something as little as missing probation??? — While the murderers and thieves run our country???? No, no, and a thousand times, no — not any more than I would have agreed to the treatment of Israel at the last great and terrible day of the Lord when they were all imprisoned by Rome with nowhere to go, no food to eat and they ended up eating their own children. Israel got what it deserved for not heeding the warnings and then Rome was destroyed.

So my dear friends we are in the prelude to the coming of God Himself as a consuming fire burning up all that is not of him as he establishes his will in the earth. It is up to each of us to prepare ourselves for his coming. I will quote just a few scriptures to let you know His coming is not flying off to heaven somewhere into some fantasy place. Earth is where the action is.

Revelation 6:15-17 — “And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand????”

Now let us go to the Old Testament.

Malachi 4:1 — “For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.”

And then it goes on to say what will happen to those who have prepared themselves. That same great and terrible day to some will be a day of joy and fulfillment. The Son of Righteousness coming with healing in his wings and “ye shall go forth like calves let out of the stalls.” Or like the prisoners set free.

And now the other side of the two edged sword. We need your help. You need to help. For blessed are those who give for great is their reward in heaven.

We are planning to get a radio station started and need help on how to go about it. What does it take?? How is it done???? We want to have the inmates on radio telling of their abuse in the prisons and exposing the corruption as Carona (Orange County’s warden) has been exposed. There are worse than murderers in the prisons under the guise as deputies and masters.

The prisons are not a rehabilitation place. They are full of our young, the backbone of our tomorrow. The prison, instead of giving God’s children hope of recovery take away their hope, their desire to work, their humanity, their worth, and replace it with nothing.

Unless we do something about it we deserve to get an America that has no substance. A country to live in that is a hell worse than can be imagined. Let us all pull together and open wide the prison doors by shouting from the housetops what is taking place behind those prison walls and always remember, "that there but for the grace of God go I", and if we do nothing, there go you my dear snoring friend.

Help us to get our radio station and then help as the prison walls come tumbling down by giving of yourself, your home, your patience, your food, your money. We are all selfish little bastards at heart until we learn to give our life so others can live. Go to our website to read some of the tales you will hear on radio once we get one started.

This is a further message for America. A nation is made up of the people who inhabit it so it is a message for you. Uncle Sam wants you!! Isaiah 42:6 — "I the Lord have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand and will keep thee and give thee as a covenant of the people for a light to the world." A covenant is like a marriage contract written in blood.

And here is what our dedication to God and His people will do.

"To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison. And them that sit in darkness out of the prison house."

Read the rest of Isaiah 42. It is full of promises beyond anything we have seen if we turn back to God and bring forth a nation with justice and righteousness, hope and benevolence once again as the fiber of our great nation.

Do not trust the one you intend to put in office whose breath is in his nostrils, but take responsibility for your own life whose trust is in the Lord our God. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

Sincerely,

Marie Kolasinski
