

REVOLUTION

We need a nationwide tax revolt!!! The only way we are going to stop the dragon damned by God, from destroying the simplicity of the America that was founded by our fathers is to stop paying the dragon — government — our taxes. Money is the blood of the system we support. As long as we keep paying our taxes we are literally keeping the dragon alive that is destroying us. America is more evil than ancient Rome. The government, from the fire department to the health department to Washington, D.C., is like a cancer that's eating away at the very fiber of our nation.

I used to believe that different parts of the government were okay — some bad, some good. I used to believe the firemen were okay because they fought fires and risked their lives. As I have personally experienced the irrational demands of different segments of government, I see now that they are all the same. Isaiah said it correctly; our nation is rotten from the top of its head to the tip of its toe. They want to rule over all of us, all the small businesses and people, so they can keep their jobs and power. They come into homes and businesses under the guise of doing good while they fine you, throw you in prison, ruin your life, all for the almighty dollar. If any of us charged into any place of business telling how to run it, they would throw us in jail. We have to take their power away from them. Just because you don't see it and your eyes aren't open to it doesn't mean it's not happening.

I'm sure there were many warnings from people with their eyes open in Germany before the end came. The Germans trusted Hitler and he declared he was going to turn things around for the better in Germany. How arrogant and stupid to think any of our politicians are any different. Here we are paying our taxes, feeding the government that wants to snuff out our very life. Every ticket we get, every prisoner imprisoned keeps the evil system going — giving them more power, more money. Every policeman "just doing his job" reminds me of Nazi Germany.

Where are the brave citizens willing to lay down their lives to put a stop to the evil men in money and power? It only takes a spark for the revolution. Thank God for the protesters on Wall Street — isn't it even ridiculous you have to have a permit to protest?

Since when is a peaceful protest illegal? Doesn't our Bill of Rights say we have the right for peaceful assembly? Where are the reporters here in America to report and print the truth? Why do we have to turn on the Russian news to see and hear the truth about America? Because the newspapers and TV news are all bought and paid for by our government and big businesses. Sodom and Gomorrah look like virgins compared to what's going on here.

I recently read a letter to the editor in our local Costa Mesa newspaper making a big deal about the protesters on Wall Street using the "f" bomb! Like that's news?! I'm sure many wrote in to the paper saying thank God someone is rising up against the corruption and they didn't print it. Thank God these young people are willing to stand for the truth. These citizens are making a stand and fighting for their rights to make a living and some idiot is concerned they said, "fuck"! Give me a break.

The Bible says that we have to be wise as a serpent and gentle as a dove. Let's pray He makes us wiser than the serpents ruling over America because we are in for a giant battle. America is pregnant with revolution. The scoffers and unbelievers cannot hold it back and they will be caught unaware — it's just a matter of time, for time is running out. God has held back America's judgment to give each and every one of us time to repent and humble ourselves.

Are you a lover of truth or do you prefer to believe a lie? It will all show up in the end.

Right now we are being called the modern Roman Empire — let us recall the demise of Rome. The people were all going on as usual; Nero fiddled while Rome burned. Rome still holds the seed of corruption and that's the Catholic Church. The church age is over and the kingdom of God is at hand.

God's got a big axe ready to cut down the so-called church — every member of that organization will be held accountable. It makes the tree of good and evil look saintly. He's just about ready to strip off the religious facade. Praying for the rocks to fall on you will not help, for your prayers will not be heard because He has never listened to your phony prayers.

America is so fucking arrogant I can't believe it. Our men are going over to fight under the guise of saving and helping the people in Iraq and now, Africa. How many stories of what they are really doing over there are being snuffed out by our government? We go there under the guise of helping them but instead we are controlling, ravaging, raping, pillaging and murdering civilians. These stories are being snuffed out by the propaganda of our local American reporters because Americans don't want to hear the truth — they want to believe a lie. Yes, there are those that are outraged by the war and the evil we are doing and we will rise up and say, "Enough!" The numbers of brave citizens are growing and rising up and marching like an army.

It's not a matter of if it happens — it is WHEN it happens.

TAX REVOLT

America will fall by its own corruption. The protesters are beginning to march from East to West as God is opening their eyes to a government that says one thing and does another. There's nothing that God hates worse than a hypocrite — putting on an angelic facade while evil lurks in the heart. The prophet Isaiah said it correctly, "We are a nation sick from the top of our head to the tip of our toes." And I can hear John the Baptist bellowing in the wilderness — typical of America — "I will go and help Iraq". So we pack up our missiles and our guns, kill mothers and babies, destroy the infrastructure of a nation, and then we say, "There, I helped them." And your tax dollar is making us part and parcel to this sin against the human race.

Now at a local level, the so-called, "I'm only here to help you," march into your business, change things around to match their codes at our expense of course, and then two-step out of your business like the damn Gestapo. Every business, big and small, should have a sign on their door — house arrest for any government official entering in this door. That is for the health department, the police department and the fire department. God is saying, “Get ye hence I never new you. Get ye hence, you doers of iniquity.”

God is forcing us to be real and true and righteous or He will destroy us.

Our paying to keep the dragon alive is over.
