To the chosen ones,

Greetings to all of you on the Isle of Patmos.

After John got the words from Jesus telling him he would feed His lambs and feed His sheep, He added some pretty awesome words.

Heretofore you went whithersoever you would go but from now on another will gird you and you will go where you do not want to go.

And then, right to the jugular vein. Thus He spake of the death that would glorify God.

So, in other words, our glory is our identification. Our glory is our very reason for living. Our glory in a sense is a light. We, up until now, have had only self glorification. What was normal for our Adam man, now becomes a sin for it cannot remain as we are being forced to change from a flat being into a volume, a container that will hold the glory of God. We will be filled with His glory. We will be the light to enlighten a dark world.

However there is a detour we must take and that is our isle of Patmos experience. It is the revelation of Jesus Christ inside the walls of our physical being. He is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. And my dear brothers and sisters, we are to be like Him with the wisdom to build His house.

Many are called, but few are chosen. So my dear chosen ones, do not lean on your understanding as He is changing you from the inside out. Put trust in the place of your understanding and you will emerge that chosen one who will not only feed the lambs and the sheep, but you will transform the goats into sweet little lambs. Baa, baa, baa.

Marie
