

October 23, 2008

Hello fellow sojourners,

This letter is not for babies. It is not for wannabes, it is not for those who love their old life. It is for those who have that faith to know that the only hope for mankind is a new creation and are willing to pay the price for it.

Now I really do not give a shit if any of you get saved. I am just obeying God. God calls you sweetsie babies. I call you selfish little bastards. So here we go, now that I have your attention.

James 2:26 — "So the body without the spirit is dead, just as faith without works is dead."

1 Corinthians 6:18 — "Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body, but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body."

Now before I begin this letter let me tell you that the word "sin" here again is referring to keeping one from glorifying God in his body. Now that body is part of our inner man. For our inner man is body, soul and spirit. You may have received Christ as your Savior but that spirit without the body is dead. Get it, daaaaaaaa.

There is much prattle, jesting, foolish talking, connecting with one another, that will keep you from becoming what God has intended for you. Free from the confines of self---those prison walls that keep you as a convict. For that is exactly what you are — in there or out here.

Now the spirit being dead without the body, is tied in directly with faith without works is dead. If you put your heart into your work, it will keep you from fornicating and you will become one with your work thus proving your faith.

There is a doorway to heaven. It is a part of the cross. It is the doorway called the "let your yeas be yea and your nays be nay" door. All else is of the evil one. As you pass through that door the tongue tempered with the hot coals will become the Tree of Life.

I find it quite interesting that Paul admonishes one to get married and it will do away with fornication. Paul's cure for ailments was like taking cod liver oil to make you healthy. I just say, "Shut your stupid mouth unless you have something to say that is life to my spirit."

Colossians 4:6 — "Let our speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man."

Philippians 1:27 — "Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ; ye then will stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel."

Old Testament — Ezekiel 16:26 — "Thou has committed fornication with the world, thy neighbors, great of flesh and hast increased your whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

Ezekiel 16:29 — "Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication and yet thou was not satisfied herewith."

And as we change from a stubborn goat always, butting and whining into that little lamb, Isaiah 53:7 becomes a way of life — "he was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth." Notice the closing of the mouth before the victory.

That my dear friends will lead you not only beside the still mind but Isaiah 35:6 will be a reality. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart and the tongue of the dumb sing for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

This is a love letter you will not get from anyone except God Himself and the old lady He has called to "grow you up".

Marie